Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Tuesday 12 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Some rain in west, drier and chilly overnight in east.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloudy and mild in the far west with outbreaks of light rain or drizzle. Becoming largely dry later. Dry with clear spells in the east, which may give some grass frost in rural spots. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Wednesday:
Largely dry, although with the chance of an isolated shower in the west. Otherwise variable amounts of cloud with some sunny spells, especially in the east during the morning. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Largely dry and cloudy Thursday, but some brighter spells later. Becoming breezy with rain overnight. Friday morning any rain soon clearing, winds easing. Then brighter but cooler, continuing into Saturday.
